Payment Increase Options	1% to 5% increase on each income start date anniversary (simple or compounded interest, flat dollar increase)
Income Payment Frequency	Monthly, quarterly, semiannually or annually
Payee Choice	The entire income payment, or a partial amount, can be directed to an alternate party, such as a charity, institution, family member or other individual. The contract owner is still responsible for the income tax on distributions to an alternate payee.
Advance Payment Option ^{3,4}	If you are receiving annuity income payments on a monthly basis, you can request to receive a lump-sum payment equal to the value of the next six months' worth of payments. Your regularly scheduled payments will resume after six months. You may exercise this feature if you are age 59½ or older and the contract is nonqualified or a Roth IRA. This feature may be elected twice during the life of the annuity contract.

³ The company expects to report the full amount of the lump-sum payment as fully taxable for the year of the payment, and recalculate the exclusion ratio for the remaining payments. This may limit or alter the policyowner's ability to fully recapture the investment in the contract over the annuity payment period. The company makes no representations and provides no advice as to the ultimate tax treatment of any annuity distribution transaction, and you may wish to consult with a tax advisor prior to exercising a withdrawal feature under an income annuity.

⁴ If the advance payment option has been exercised, there will be a six-month waiting period before a commutation withdrawal benefit can be requested.

Commutation Withdrawal Benefit^{3,4,5}

After the second contract anniversary, the owner can elect a one-time withdrawal up to 100% of the present value of the remaining guaranteed income payments as a lump sum.

- Available for nonqualified and Roth IRA contracts that include non-increasing single or joint lifetime income payment options with a certain period, cash refund or installment refund⁴
- Beneficiaries may request a lump-sum withdrawal if all annuitants die before the end of any remaining guaranteed period
- Withdrawal amount must be greater than or equal to $2,500
- Withdrawals will reduce any remaining guaranteed payments by the same percentage amount as the withdrawal
- At the end of the guaranteed period, lifetime income payments will return to the amount guaranteed prior to the withdrawal
- Rider terminates upon use or after guaranteed income payments cease, whichever occurs first
- Withdrawals may be subject to restrictions and may incur withdrawal charges as shown below

Withdrawal charges are applied as a percentage of the amount being withdrawn.

Annuities are long-term retirement saving vehicles.

Retirement plans and accounts that satisfy relevant qualification rules, such as 403(b)s, IRAs, 401(k)s, etc., can be tax deferred regardless of whether or not they are funded with an annuity. If you are considering funding a tax-qualified retirement plan or account with an annuity, you should know that an annuity does not provide any additional tax-deferred treatment of earnings beyond the tax deferral of the tax-qualified retirement plan or account itself. However, annuities do provide other features and benefits.
